moira smiley & VOCO, a trio of singers who push the edge of a cappella music redefining harmony with the power and physicality of folk song, the avant-garde fearlessness of Béla Bartók and vaudevillian cello, accordion and banjo. Named number one a cappella group in the U.S. in 2007, moira smiley & VOCO create lush arrangements of American and European songs and light up the stage with body percussion and warm wit.
